

How long are classes?

A Bradley® class series is 12 weeks and is designed to give both mother and coach adequate preparation time for the birth of their child. Labor can be a strenuous physical activity, but mothers and coaches can prepare both physically and mentally and with the help of their Bradley® Instructor to make their birth experience an even more beautiful and joyous event.